

Setting

The campaign is set in the kingdom of Aleron, a vast and prosperous land known for its lush forests and fertile fields. Aleron is a land of many towns and villages, each with its unique charm and character. The campaign takes place in the peaceful town of Willowbrook, nestled in the heart of Aleron.

Story

Willowbrook has been plagued by a sudden onslaught of Hill Giants. These towering creatures have been terrorizing the town, causing chaos and destruction wherever they go. The people of Willowbrook are desperate for help, as many have lost their homes and lives to these giants.

Objective

The objective of the scenario is for the players to defend Willowbrook from the Hill Giants and eliminate the threat they pose. They must find a way to repel the giants and restore peace to the town. The players will need to gather information, devise a strategy, and engage in combat to achieve this goal.

Reward

Upon successfully repelling the Hill Giants and saving Willowbrook, the players will be rewarded with the gratitude of the townspeople. They will each receive a pouch containing 500 gold pieces as a token of appreciation. Additionally, the mayor of Willowbrook will offer the players a magical artifact known as the Gauntlet of Resilience.

The Gauntlet of Resilience is a sturdy, leather gauntlet that grants the wearer enhanced endurance and protection. When worn, the gauntlet increases the wearer's maximum hit points by 10, making them more resilient in combat. The gauntlet also grants advantage on saving throws against being incapacitated or exhausted. It is said that the gauntlet was crafted by the ancient order of warriors who once defended the kingdom from monstrous invaders.

The Gauntlet of Resilience can be acquired from the mayor's office in Willowbrook.

Locations

Willowbrook

Description: Willowbrook is a quaint, picturesque town located beside a sparkling river. The town is known for its charming cottages with thatched roofs, vibrant gardens, and a bustling marketplace. However, the recent attacks by the Hill Giants have left their mark on the once-beautiful town. Buildings are in ruins, and the streets are strewn with debris.

Hillside Caverns

Description: The Hillside Caverns are a network of winding caves located on the outskirts of Willowbrook. It is believed that the Hill Giants have made their lair within these caverns. The caves are dark and treacherous, with stalagmites and stalactites jutting out from the floor and ceiling. The air is thick with the stench of wet earth and decay.

Items: Deep within the Hillside Caverns, hidden behind a secret wall, lies the Stone of Earth's Embrace. This small, unassuming stone radiates a faint magical aura. When held, it grants the user the ability to cast the Pass without Trace spell once per day.

Town Hall

Description: The Town Hall of Willowbrook is a grand building located at the heart of the town. It serves as the administrative center and meeting place for the townspeople. The hall has a large council chamber adorned with elegant tapestries depicting the history of Willowbrook.

Items: In the basement of the Town Hall, there is a well-preserved chest containing a set of ancient scrolls. These scrolls contain forgotten rituals and spells that could be of great use to the players. The precise location of the chest is known only to the mayor.

Forest Clearing

Description: The Forest Clearing is a serene and tranquil spot deep in the woods surrounding Willowbrook. It offers a respite from the chaos of the town and provides a secluded place for reflection. The clearing is bathed in sunlight, and colorful flowers dot the grassy ground.

Items: In the center of the Forest Clearing, there is an ancient oak tree known as the Warden's Oak. Within its hollow trunk, a small cache of healing potions can be found. These potions, when consumed, restore 2d4+2 hit points.

Abandoned Tower

Description: The Abandoned Tower is an ominous structure located on the outskirts of Willowbrook. It is said to have once been the haven of a powerful wizard but now lies in ruins, covered in ivy and shrouded in mystery. The tower is tall and dilapidated, its stairs creaking as they ascend to the top.

Items: At the very top of the Abandoned Tower, hidden beneath a loose floorboard, lies the Staff of Enshrouded Shadows. This staff grants the wielder the ability to cast the Darkness spell once per day. The staff is carved from a rare blackwood and emanates an aura of shadowy energy.
